2. The General Shareholders' Meeting shall be chaired by the Chairperson of the Board of Directors or, in the event of vacancy, absence or illness, by the Deputy Chairperson; if there are several Deputy Chairpersons of the Board, the meeting shall be chaired by the relevant Deputy Chairperson according to the order established by the Board of Directors at the time he/she was appointed as Deputy Chairperson. Failing the Chairperson and all Deputy Chairpersons of the Board of Directors, the General Shareholders' Meeting shall be chaired by that member of the Board of Directors appointed by the General Shareholders' Meeting.
3. The Chairperson shall be assisted by a Secretary. The Secretary to the General Shareholders' Meeting shall be the Secretary to the Board of Directors or (in the event of vacancy, absence or illness) the Deputy Secretary. Otherwise, the Secretary to the General Shareholders' Meeting shall be appointed by the Officers of the General Shareholder's Meeting.

4. The Chairperson, even when present at the meeting, may appoint the Secretary or any member of the Board of Directors, as the Chairperson may see fit, to order and conduct the discussions at the meeting. The Chairperson may also enlist the assistance of any expert as the Chairperson may see fit.

Article 19.- Proceedings at the General Shareholders' Meeting

Without prejudice to the provisions of the Articles of Association of the Company, it is the duty of the Chairperson to declare the General Shareholders' Meeting validly formed; to lead and establish the order of discussions and presentations and the time allocated to each of them under this Rules; to bring an end to discussions once the Chairperson considers that the matter has been sufficiently discussed; to order voting to take place; to resolve any doubts arising about the agenda and the attendance list; to announce the approval of any resolutions; to close or adjourn the meeting, and generally to exercise any authority, including in matters of order and discipline, that is necessary to properly conduct the meeting, including the authority to order the removal from the meeting of those who disrupt the normal proceedings of the meeting and the authority to construe the provisions in this Rules.

Article 20.- Registration of shareholders

1. In the place and on the date scheduled for the General Shareholders' Meeting on first or second call, and starting one hour before the time scheduled for the commencement of the meeting (unless otherwise specified in the notice of call), shareholders or their proxies may file their attendance, proxy and remote voting cards as well as, where appropriate, any proxy documentation with any staff in charge of registering shareholders. No attendance, proxy and remote voting cards and proxy documentation filed after the time scheduled for the commencement of the General Shareholders' Meeting shall be accepted.
2. Shareholders (attending in person or by proxy) shall be registered by any officers appointed by the Secretary to the General Shareholders' Meeting, using where appropriate any technical resources deemed convenient.

Article 21.- Attendance list

1. If upon completion of the registration process for attendance, proxy and remote voting cards, the meeting is found to be validly quorate, an attendance list shall be prepared.
2. Shareholders or their proxies, as appropriate, arriving late at the place where the General Shareholders' Meeting is being held, once registration of attendance, proxy and remote voting cards has closed, shall be issued with an invitation card so that they may, if they so wish, follow the meeting (either in the same room where such meeting is being held or, if deemed appropriate by the Company to avoid any disruption during the meeting, in an adjoining room), but neither such shareholders nor such proxyholders shall be included on the attendance list.

3. The General Shareholders' Meeting shall commence at the scheduled place, date and time, on first or second call once the Board of the meeting has been formed and the attendance list has been prepared.
4. First, the Secretary shall relate to essential data of the call and may read out the notice of convocation if deemed appropriate by the President. Then the Secretary will publicly read the total figures resulting from the attendance list, stating the number of shareholders with a right to vote present (including those who, where appropriate, have cast their vote by remote means of communication) and represented at the meeting; the number of shares held by each of these groups; and the percentage of the share capital that they represent, specifying, where appropriate, the percentage held by shareholders entitled to vote. The Chairperson shall then declare the General Shareholders' Meeting validly in session, on first or second call, as appropriate.
5. At the start of the General Shareholders' Meeting, the Secretary's statement on the list of attendees may be made provisionally for the purpose of accrediting the sufficiency of the quorum for the valid constitution of the Meeting (for these purposes, the process of registering attendees may be closed minutes before the time established for the start of the General Shareholders' Meeting). In any event, the definitive closure of the list (for which purpose the registration of attendees will be accepted up to the time established for the start of the General Meeting) and the consequent determination of the definitive quorum must be made before putting the proposed resolutions corresponding to the different items on the agenda of the General Meeting to the vote.
6. Thereafter, and without prejudice to their right to make any statements they consider appropriate when offered the floor, shareholders may call on the notary public who was asked to attend or otherwise on the Secretary to record in the minutes of the meeting their reservations or objections regarding the formation of the meeting or the figures in the attendance list that were previously read out. No such request shall unduly delay, disrupt or postpone the ordinary course of the meeting.
7. If the attendance list is included at the beginning of the minutes of the General Shareholders' Meeting, it shall be attached as a schedule to such minutes signed by the Secretary and the Chairperson of the meeting. The attendance list may also be prepared as an electronic file or saved into any computer media. In these cases, the type of media used shall be recorded in the minutes and the sealed cover of such file or media shall include a statement signed by the Secretary and the Chairperson of the General Shareholders' Meeting for identification.

SECTION III: PARTICIPATION BY SHAREHOLDERS

Article 22.- Requests to address the meeting

1. Once the General Shareholders' Meeting has been duly formed and to allocate speaking times, the Chairperson shall request that shareholders who wish to exercise their right to address the meeting or, where appropriate, request information or clarifications concerning items on the agenda, of the information accessible to the public that the Company has provided to the Comisión Nacional del Mercado de Valores since the last General Meeting and of the auditor's report or make any proposals, in legally permitted cases, to identify themselves to the notary public or otherwise to the Secretary or to their nominees, stating their full name and the number of shares they hold or represent.

2. If the shareholder or his proxy wishes his statement or proposal to be recorded verbatim in the minutes of the meeting, he must submit such statement or proposal in writing at that time to the notary public or otherwise to the Secretary, so that the notary public or the Secretary may collate such written statement or proposal with the address delivered by the shareholder or his proxy.
3. The floor shall be opened for shareholders once the Officers of the meeting have compiled the list of shareholders who wish to address the meeting, following any introductory speech by or submission of any reports that, where appropriate, the Chairperson, the Managing Director (if any), the Chairpersons of the different Committees of the Board of Directors, other members of the Board of Directors or any other individual appointed by the Chairperson may have prepared and, in any event, before any vote on the items of the agenda.

Article 23.- Shareholders' right to address the meeting

1. Shareholders shall address the meeting in the order in which they are called by the Officers of the meeting, as determined by the Chairperson of the General Shareholders' Meeting.
2. In exercising his authority to conduct the General Shareholders' Meeting, and without prejudice to any other actions, the Chairperson may:
 - a. determine the maximum time allotted to each shareholder, which should initially be the same for each of them;
 - b. agree, where appropriate, to extend or reduce the time initially allotted to each shareholder, based on the purpose and content of their speech;
 - c. set a time limit for the shareholders to speak, whenever he considers that a matter has been sufficiently discussed;
 - d. invite the addressing shareholders to clarify any issues that have not been sufficiently explained during their address;
 - e. call on addressing shareholders so that they confine their speech to matters reserved to the General Shareholders' Meeting and refrain from making improper remarks or exercising their right to speak in an abusive or obstructive manner;
 - f. announce to participants that the time allotted to their address is about to conclude so that they may adjust their speech and, once such time has come to an end, or if they persist in any conduct described in paragraph e) above, order them to yield the floor;

- g. if he considers that the address by a shareholder may potentially alter the proper conduct of the meeting, ask such shareholder to leave the premises and, where appropriate, adopt such ancillary measures as are necessary to enforce such request; and
- h. in the event that any participant intends to reply, grant (or not) the floor to that participant, as he may consider fit.

Article 24.- Right to receive information during the General Shareholders' Meeting

1. During the period allotted to shareholders to address the meeting, shareholders may verbally request any information or clarification that they deem necessary regarding matters included on the agenda, any public information provided by the Company to the CNMV since the last General Shareholders' Meeting was held, or information regarding the report prepared by the statutory auditor. To do so, requesting shareholders must have previously identified themselves under Article 22 above.
2. Directors must provide such information in accordance with the preceding section, except in the circumstances of Article 9.4 of these Regulations.

Likewise, when, prior to the formulation of a specific question, the information requested is clearly, expressly and directly available to all shareholders on the Company's corporate website in the "Q&A" format, the directors may limit their reply to refer to the information provided in that format.

3. The requested information or clarification shall be provided by the Chairperson or, where appropriate and if so directed by the Chairperson, by the Managing Director (if any), the Chairpersons of the Committees of the Board of Directors, the Secretary or Deputy Secretary, a director or, if appropriate, by any employee or expert in the field. The Chairperson shall determine in each case, and depending on the information or clarification requested, if the best course of action for the smooth operation of the General Shareholders' Meeting is to provide each answer individually or grouped by subject matter.
4. If directors are unable to provide a full answer to the relevant shareholder at the General Shareholders' Meeting, the directors shall provide the requested information in writing to such shareholder within seven days after the General Shareholders' Meeting.

Article 25.- Extension and adjournment of the General Shareholders' Meeting

1. The General Shareholders' Meeting may be extended over one or more consecutive days upon a proposal by the directors or a number of shareholders representing at least 25% of the capital present or represented at the meeting. Regardless of the number of sessions held, they shall be regarded as a single meeting, and only one set of minutes shall be drawn up for all such sessions. Accordingly, it shall not be necessary to ensure compliance in successive sessions with any statutory requirements or other requirements specified in the Articles of Association of the Company or these Rules for such session to be valid. If a shareholder listed on the attendance list thereafter fails to attend any subsequent session, the voting majorities for such sessions shall still be determined based on the data resulting from such list.

2. As an exception, if any events occur that significantly disrupt the meeting or any other extraordinary circumstance temporarily prevents or hinders the ordinary course of the meeting, the Chairperson of the General Shareholders' Meeting may adjourn the session for as long as necessary to ensure that the conditions necessary to resume the meeting are duly met. The Chairperson may also take any measures deemed appropriate to ensure the safety of the attendees and avoid the repetition of circumstances that prevent or hinder the ordinary course of the meeting.

Article 26.- Casting of votes by remote means of communication prior to the General Shareholders' Meeting

1. Shareholders entitled to attend the meeting may vote prior to the General Meeting on proposals relating to items on the agenda of any General Shareholders' Meeting by remote communication means, meaning:
 - a. By mail, thereby submitting a duly signed and completed attendance proxy and remote voting cards issued by the Company, if any, or by the entity or entities in charge of keeping the registry of book entries, or other written instrument which, as resolved by the Board of Directors in a prior resolution adopted for such purposes, allows the identity of the shareholder exercising his voting rights to be duly guaranteed; or
 - b. Through electronic correspondence or any other remote means of communication that the Board of Directors may have specified, where appropriate, on the notice of call for each General Shareholders' Meeting, provided that they meet the appropriate guarantees to verify the identity of the voting shareholder and, where appropriate, the security of electronic communications.
2. Votes that are cast remotely as described above shall only be valid if received by the Company by midnight on the day immediately preceding the date scheduled for holding the General Shareholders' Meeting. The Board of Directors may set a shorter period for receiving votes by remote means of communication.
3. If no express instructions are included in the remote voting, or if they are only included in respect of some of the items on the agenda of the call to meeting, it shall be understood that the remote vote refers to all the items included in the agenda of the call to the General Shareholders' Meeting and that it is in favour of the proposals made by the Board of Directors.

The means by which the shareholder may cast his vote by remote means may provide, in relation to proposed resolutions concerning items not included in the agenda of the

- call to meeting, for the granting of his proxy, in which case the rules established for this purpose in these Regulations shall apply to the proxy.
4. Shareholders voting by remote means under the above provisions shall be deemed present for the purposes of the formation of the relevant General Shareholders' Meeting. Consequently, any proxies granted before such vote shall be deemed cancelled, and any proxies granted after such vote shall be ignored.
 5. Votes cast by means of remote communication under the provisions herein shall be rendered null and void only:
 - a. If they are thereafter expressly revoked by the same means used to cast such votes, always within the initial period allowed to cast the vote.
 - b. If the voting shareholder or his proxy attends the meeting in person, either physically or telematically.
 - c. Upon a sale of the relevant shares, of which the Company becomes aware, at least five days before the date scheduled for the General Shareholders' Meeting.
 6. The Board of Directors may implement the above provisions establishing the rules, means and procedures appropriate to the state of the art to facilitate the casting of remote votes and the granting of proxies by electronic means, where appropriate under any statutory provisions governing such system and the provisions in the Articles of Association and these Rules. In particular, the Board of Directors shall adopt any necessary measures to ensure that the shareholder casting the vote or appointing a proxy by post or electronic communication is duly authorised to do so under the Company's Articles of Association and these Rules. Such means and procedures shall be published on the website of the Company.
 7. The addition of remote shareholders who have cast their vote prior to the General Meeting by remote means of communication to the attendance list shall proceed by combining the computer media where they are registered with any storage media containing the rest of such list. If the list is prepared under the form of a file listing all attendance, proxy and remote voting cards, such addition shall proceed by producing a hard copy including the same information as the information on the card for each shareholder who voted through electronic means, without prejudice to the preservation in any durable electronic medium of evidence of the vote received.

Article 26 bis.- Attendance at the General Meeting by telematic means

The Company may enable attendance at the General Meeting by telematic and simultaneous means that duly guarantee the identity of the shareholders and their proxies and the casting of votes during the holding of the Meeting, provided that the Board of Directors so resolves. In this case, the notice of call shall establish the deadlines, forms and methods of exercising shareholders' rights, in accordance with the provisions of the Articles of Association and these Regulations. In particular, the Board of Directors may determine that the interventions and proposed resolutions which, in accordance with the Law and these Regulations, those who intend to attend by telematic means, shall be sent to the Company prior to the constitution of the General Meeting. All such information shall also be posted on the Company's website.

SECTION IV: VOTING AND RECORDATION OF RESOLUTIONS

Article 27.- Voting on proposed resolutions

1. Once the period for shareholders to address the meeting has ended and any information or clarifications have, where appropriate, been provided under these Rules, the proposed resolutions on the items included in the agenda -or other proposals (if any) regarding any other matters which, by law, need not be included in the agenda- shall be put to a vote. In the case of those proposals which need not be so included in the agenda.
2. There shall be no requirement for the Secretary to read out proposed resolutions in advance if the texts have been at the disposal of shareholders prior to the General Meeting unless otherwise requested (in respect of all or any proposal) deemed appropriate by the Chairperson. In any event, attendees shall be informed of the item on the agenda to which the proposed resolution that is being put to a vote refers.
3. Significantly independent matters shall be voted on separately, even if they are listed under or relate to the same item in the agenda, so that shareholders may exercise their voting preferences separately. This rule shall apply, in particular: (i) to the appointment, confirmation, re-election or removal of each director, which should be voted on separately; (ii) to an advisory vote on the annual report on the remuneration of directors; and (iii) in the event of any amendments of the Articles of Association of the Company, in respect of each article or group of articles that is essentially independent.

Without prejudice to the above, if circumstances so advise, the Chairperson may decide that the proposals corresponding to various items on the agenda be submitted to a single vote, and the resulting vote shall be deemed to apply to each proposal if none of the attendees expressed their intention to change the direction of their vote regarding any specific item. Otherwise, any such changes expressed by each attendee and the outcome of the vote in respect of each proposal arising as a result of such changes shall be noted in the minutes.

4. The procedure to adopt resolutions shall follow the order of the agenda included in the notice of call. First, any resolutions proposed by the Board of Directors shall be put to a vote, followed by any resolutions proposed, where appropriate, by other proponents and any proposals related to matters on which the General Shareholders' Meeting is authorised to resolve even though such matters were not on the agenda. The Chairperson shall decide the order in which such matters shall be put to a vote. In any event, once a proposal has been adopted as a resolution, all other proposals relating to the same matter that are incompatible with it shall be automatically withdrawn and shall not, therefore, be submitted to a vote.

5. As a general rule and without prejudice to the authority of the Chairperson to use alternative voting procedures and systems, for the purposes of voting on proposed resolutions, the direction of the shareholders' votes shall be determined as follows:
 - a. In the case of proposed resolutions related to items included in the agenda of the call carried out or taken over by the Board, the votes corresponding to all shareholders attending in person or by proxy shall be considered as votes for such resolution, after deducting any votes corresponding to: those shares whose holders or proxies stated that they vote against, in blank or abstain by notice to the notary public (or otherwise to the Secretary to the General Shareholders' Meeting) or his assistants, to be recorded in the minutes; those shares whose holders voted against or in blank or expressly stated their abstention by remote communication means under these Rules; those shares whose holders or proxies left the meeting before the vote on the relevant proposal, provided that their departure from the meeting was recorded by the notary public or his assistants or otherwise by the Secretary to the General Shareholders' Meeting.
 - b. In the case of proposed resolutions related to items not included in the agenda of the call or proposals not taken up by the Board, the votes corresponding to all shareholders attending in person or by proxy shall be considered as votes against such resolution, after deducting any votes corresponding to: those shares whose holders or proxies state that they vote for, in blank or abstain by notice to the notary public or otherwise to the Secretary to the General Shareholders' Meeting or his assistants, to be recorded in the minutes; those shares whose holders or proxies left the meeting before the vote on the relevant proposal, provided that their departure from the meeting was recorded by the notary public or his assistants (or otherwise by the Secretary to the General Shareholders' Meeting).
 - c. Any statements or notices to the notary public (or, failing that, to the Secretary or any assistants) referred to in paragraph a) above regarding the direction of the vote or any abstention may be made individually with respect to each of the proposed resolutions or in aggregate in respect of several or all resolutions, by confirming to the notary public or otherwise to the Secretary or their assistants the identity and status (i.e., as a shareholder or proxy) of the voter, the number of shares being voted and the direction of such vote or, if appropriate, any abstention.

Article 28.- Conflict of interests

1. Shareholders may not exercise any voting rights attached to their shares whenever the proposed resolution is intended to:
 - a. Release the shareholder from any obligation, or grant any right to such shareholder;
 - b. Provide such shareholder with any financial assistance, including any guarantee; or

- c. Release such shareholder from any obligations derived from any duty of loyalty under applicable regulations.
2. In cases of conflict of interest of shareholders other than those provided for in section 1 above, the shareholders affected shall not be deprived of their voting rights, without prejudice to the provisions of law in this respect.

Article 29.- Adoption of resolutions and closure of the General Shareholders' Meeting

1. Resolutions shall be carried by a simple majority of the shares with voting rights held by shareholders attending (either in person or by proxy) the General Shareholders' Meeting, and a resolution shall be deemed to have been adopted whenever it has more votes for than against from voting shares present and represented at the meeting unless applicable laws or the Articles of Association require a qualified majority. To determine the number of shares upon which the aforementioned majority required for the adoption of resolutions on matters not included in the agenda shall be calculated, shares that are not present or represented at the meeting shall be excluded.
2. The Chairperson shall declare any resolution duly passed whenever he has determined that there are sufficient votes for such resolution but shall ensure that the direction of the vote or the abstention of any attending shareholders who request so to the notary public (or, where appropriate, to the Secretary or their assistants) is recorded in the minutes.
3. Once all proposals have been voted and the result of the vote has been announced by the Chairperson, the General Shareholders' Meeting shall come to an end and the Chairperson shall adjourn the meeting.

Article 30.- Minutes of the General Shareholders' Meeting

1. All decisions of the General Shareholders' Meeting shall be recorded directly on the minutes book or otherwise copied onto such book. The minutes must be approved by the General Shareholders' Meeting upon closing of the meeting or, failing this and within any term provided for in the relevant regulations applicable to the Company, by the Chairperson and two scrutineers (one of them acting on behalf of the majority, and the other acting on behalf of the minority).
2. Corporate decisions recorded in minutes approved as described above may be implemented from the date of such approval.
3. The Board of Directors may ask a notary public to attend the General Shareholders' Meeting and take the minutes and shall do so following a request to such effect -filed five days before the date scheduled for the meeting- by shareholders representing at least one per cent of the share capital.
4. The minutes taken by a notary public shall constitute the minutes of the meeting, and shall not be subject to the approval of the meeting.

Article 31.- Publicity of resolutions

Without prejudice to the registration with the Spanish Commercial Registry of any resolutions subject to compulsory registration, and notwithstanding any applicable statutory provisions regarding the publication of company resolutions, the Company shall notify the approved resolutions to the CNMV as a regulatory disclosure (otra información relevante), either verbatim or by providing an extract thereof. The text of all resolutions passed and the result of the votes corresponding to all General Shareholders' Meetings held during the current and the previous year shall be published in full on the website of the Company within five days after the end of the relevant meeting. Upon a request by any shareholder or his proxy-holder at the relevant General Shareholders' Meeting, the Secretary shall issue a certificate of the resolutions or the notarial minutes, if applicable.
