In addition, the shareholders are entitled to examine, at the registered office, and request delivery or immediate sending without charge (which may be accomplished by way of email with acknowledgment of receipt if the shareholder accepts this approach) of a copy of the individual annual accounts and management report of the Company, and the consolidated accounts and reports with its subsidiaries, together with the respective audit reports, for financial year 2022, the proposed resolutions, including those relating to the amendments of the Articles of Association, the mandatory directors' reports, as well as such other documentation as must be made available to them upon the holding of this Ordinary General Shareholders' Meeting.

In accordance with articles 197 and 520 of the Spanish Companies Law (Ley de Sociedades de Capital), from the day of publication of the call of the General Shareholders'

Meeting until the fifth day prior to the date that the General Shareholders' Meeting is scheduled to be held, inclusive, or verbally while it is being held, shareholders may ask the Board of Directors about the items on the agenda, including such information or clarifications as they deem to be necessary, or may pose the questions they deem appropriate in writing.

In addition, with the same advance notice in writing, or verbally while the General Shareholders' Meeting is being held, shareholders may request such clarifications as they deem necessary regarding the information available to the public that the Company has provided to the Spanish National Securities Market Commission since the last General Shareholders' Meeting, and regarding the auditor's report.

Requests for information may be delivered at the registered office or may be sent to the Company by post to the address Lar España Real Estate SOCIMI, S.A., Junta General, c/ María de Molina 39, 10th floor, 28006, Madrid; or electronically through the website of Lar España (www.larespana.com) in the place and in the form established for that purpose.

Those requests in which the electronic document by virtue of which the information is requested incorporates the legally-recognised electronic signature of the shareholder, on the terms provided in Law 6/2020, of November 11, regulating certain aspects of electronic trust services, and Regulation (EU) No 910/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council of July 23, 2014, on electronic identification and trust services for electronic transactions in the internal market, will be accepted, provided that they are based on a recognised electronic certificate that has not been revoked and that (i) is an Electronic User Certificate issued by the Spanish Public Certification Authority (CERES) under the Spanish Royal Mint or (ii) is included in the Electronic ID issued in accordance with Royal Decree 1553/2005 of December 23, 2005 regulating the issue of the national IDs and electronic signature certificates.

Whatever means are used to send requests for information, the shareholder's request must include its full name and evidence of the shares held, by attaching a copy of the attendance card or certificate of shareholder status, for this information to be checked against the list of shareholders and the number of shares appearing in each shareholder's name provided by IBERCLEAR for the General Shareholders' Meeting. The shareholder has the burden of proving the request was sent to the Company in proper form and in a timely manner.

Directors will be required to provide the information in writing, until the day the General Shareholders' Meeting is held, except in those cases in which:

- (a) the information is not necessary to protect shareholders' rights, or there are objective reasons to believe that it could be used other than for corporate purposes, or its disclosure would harm the Company or related companies;
- (b) the request for information or clarification does not relate to matters on the agenda or to information available to the public provided by the Company to the National Securities Market Commission since the holding of the last General Shareholders' Meeting;

- (c) the request for information or requested clarification is rightly considered abusive since it relates to information that (i) has been or is the subject of any judicial or administrative sanction proceedings, (ii) is a protected commercial or industrial secret or industrial or intellectual property, (iii) affects the confidentiality of personal information or records, (iv) deals with information the disclosure of which is prohibited by a confidentiality commitment assumed by the Company;
- (d) the information requested is available in a clear, express and direct manner to all shareholders on the company's website in a "question and answer" format, in which case directors may limit their answer to referring the applicant to the information provided in that format; or
- (e) it is so provided by legal or regulatory provisions or judicial rulings.

Nevertheless, these exceptions will not apply when the application is supported by shareholders representing at least twenty-five per cent of the share capital.

Requests for information will be answered after verifying the identity and shareholder status of the applicant, before the General Shareholders' Meeting, using the same means in which they were submitted, unless the shareholder indicates another means for that purpose. In any event, directors may send the information in question by certified mail with acknowledgment of receipt, or by facsimile.

SPECIAL INFORMATION TOOLS

In accordance with article 539.2 of the Spanish Companies Law (Ley de Sociedades de Capital), and on the terms referred to therein, in order to facilitate communication between shareholders prior to the holding of the General Shareholders' Meeting, an Electronic Shareholders' Forum will be established on the Company's website, which may be accessed both by individual shareholders and such voluntary associations as, under the provisions of that article, may be set up.

Supplementary proposals to the agenda announced in the notice of the General Shareholders' Meeting may be posted on the Forum, together with requests for support of such proposals, initiatives to reach the percentage required to exercise statutory non-controlling shareholder rights and any offers or requests to act as a voluntary proxy.

Access to the Forum and the terms and conditions for its use and operation will be governed by the provisions in this notice and in the operating rules for the Electronic Shareholders' Forum, which may be consulted on the Company's website.

In accordance with the provisions of article 527 bis of the Spanish Companies Law (Ley de Sociedades de Capital), after the General Shareholders' Meeting is held and within one month therefrom, any shareholder, or their representative, and the ultimate beneficiary, may request a confirmation of the correct registration and accounting of the votes cast electronically corresponding to their shares issued by the Company, unless they already have this information.

This document is a translation of an original text in Spanish. In case of any discrepancy between both texts, the Spanish version will prevail.

The Company will send such confirmation within fifteen days of the presentation of the request or, if such presentation takes place on a later date, of the holding of the General Shareholders' Meeting.
